WE DEDICATE . . .

We the Class of 1975 and the Niagarian staff are pleased to dedicate the 1975 yearbook to Mr. Alan Stafford. We wish to thank you for all the time you have spent and the things that you have done to help make our senior year a happy and successful one. Please accept this token of our appreciation, although it is small compared to what you have given us of yourself, Mr. Stafford.

NIAGARIAN EDITORS

RICHARD DARBY
Co-editor

As our High School days come to a conclusion, we are all leaving memories of our achievements. Some of us have set records in athletics, others have made academic honors. Many have found themselves participating in writing, music, and drama. Whether our accomplishments have been great or small, we have all formed unforgettable friendships. I hope this book will serve as a lasting impression of our days at Niagara Falls High School.

MARY FIACCO
Co-editor

As time progresses, many changes will occur. In our minds there are memories of good and bad times but each in its own way has a special significance. This book will express the many different feelings about "our time" spent at Niagara Falls High School.

To the Class of 1975 . . .

You have completed your first step in the ladder of life successfully: the completion of your high school education.

The next step is much more difficult: further education or your entrance into the business world in some form of work. Having achieved this, the next step will take a lifetime.

Set your goals. There may be failures along the way, but don't let it deter you. Success in life is a full time job.

My best wishes go with you in your future endeavors.

N. Hodge

TO THE CLASS OF 1975

You are to be congratulated for having successfully met your graduation requirements.

It has often been said that, "the future belongs to the young." As you embark upon life's future adventures, you will soon learn that much will be expected of you.

We still face many problems at home and abroad as we pass the half-way mark of the 70's. It is our hope that your formal education has helped you to cope with the problems of our complex world.

Be resolute and face the future with a spirit of optimism and I'm sure that all the success we and your parents wish for you will become a reality.

George Stankovich
Vice-Principal

One of the most difficult tasks that any administrator faces during the course of a school year is trying to convince and advise students to remain in school and complete their education. We win some and lose some. Therefore, it is with a great feeling of pride and admiration we see students successfully complete their education and earn the merits of their hard work. Congratulations to the Class of 75 and I pray for your continued success and achievement.

Frank Orfano
Vice Principal

Your final year at Niagara Falls High School brings you to a beginning of a new part of life. The things that you have learned up to now will provide a foundation for the future. Use the knowledge you have attained in a positive way so that it does not only serve you, but all of mankind.

Good luck and happiness for all.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

OFFICERS — Sam Archie, Business Manager; Tina Grana, Secretary; Mike Marrone, Vice President; John Miller, President; Claudia Wolosin, Historian; Brian Fiori, Treasurer; Mr. Alan Stafford, Advisor.

In our three long years here at Niagara Fally High School, we have been able to make many new and longlasting friendships. These friends along with all the pressures and hardships we've been able to conquer have made these years the most meaningful in our lives. We hope they have been as rewarding for you. To "succeed in life" is an ultimate goal for many, but to be happy in your work and in your life is our greatest hope for the Class of 1975.

Dear Yoko,

You made so many friends while you were here, I wish I'd gotten to know you better. We did talk a few times in the cafeteria; there were so many questions I'd wanted to ask, but I guess I was too shy. By the way, how much pollution is there in Japan?

*It sure must have taken a lot of courage for you to have come here, Yoko, to a strange country where you didn't know anyone. And it was fantastic the way you got involved in so many things. You were inducted into the Honor Society and I saw you in the play M*A*S*H.*

In July you'll go back home. We'll never forget the great impact you made on us in your own quiet way. I for one will always remember your sweet smile and soft voice and manner. I've heard your dream is to become an English teacher; best of luck in all your endeavors. Treasure your memories of us at NFHS!

*With love,
A friend*

The ticking of the clock drones monotonously, while the pendulum hypnotically retains the momentum, and the two unchanging constants harmonize together to signify the passing of Time. Time, the ever-present unit for measuring the course of pain, grief, pleasure or happiness, is relevant not only to space, but also to human experience and emotions.

When one is enjoying himself, Time elapses quickly, but in times of anxiety or suffering, it drags slowly and tediously. Why (the eternal question)? Shouldn't one, when he is at ease and contented, be able to grasp and keep Time in an attempt to relish and preserve the bliss instead of having to watch it slip away so quickly and skillfully to come back and haunt him in future periods of anguish? Can't it be loaned or borrowed in any way for the purpose of retaining some of life's most precious pleasures?

The teen years, often thought of as comprising the best years of one's life, besides being a period of great physical change, are a time of extreme emotional metamorphosis. This transformation from child to adult, a confusing-enough era in one's existence, is one in which Time can either race by with great intensity or crawl along. Usually dependent on the specific personality, attitude or circumstances of the individual, it can make life at this point a joyous party or a hostile nightmare.

Hinging on various often-uncontrollable powers, this undefinable demon named Time strikes in the manner of an insidious snake, slithering stealthily by without permitting any retaliation whatsoever. No defenses can be invented to combat this foe, for though it remains an enemy to many people, its worth to others as an escape mechanism can hardly be overemphasized.

Crafty, indestructible, creative Time, the root of all, the pacemaker, probation officer and indisputable judge of the world, are you really the cold-hearted opponent you portray yourself, or like a loving "papa", are you merely trying to discipline and protect your "children" and attempt to regain order on Earth?

PROPHECY

As our thoughts drift on a cloud of pink, we find ourselves being carried to the year 1985.

The cloud clears and we find ourselves at the GORMAN Airport. MARY ANNE OLIVER, the mayor of Niagara Falls and councilpersons NANETTE BARAN, BRIAN FIORI, TOM LEPAGE, and JANET THOMPSON are awaiting the arrival of DEBBIE CIVISA, famous recording artist with PASLER Records, and LORELI COUTTS, ROBIN BELLEGIA and LISA FRACASSI, who have been appearing in the Broadway Musical "A Salute to Tootsie," written and directed by JEFF COHEN. They are returning to their home town for a benefit performance to raise funds for the GUTHRIE Foundation.

As the MUSCATELLO jet approaches the airfield, we see pilot KATHY OLEARCZYK and co-pilot JOHN LEONE. They seem to be issuing landing instructions to the stewardess, MARGUERITE D., LYNNE M. AND ELLEN C., as they prepare to set down....

As the jet lands and doors open, we see LYNN SLANGO and KATHY FADEL approaching to welcome the famous artists. There's DEBBIE PERRICELLI, the renowned gossip columnist, with pen and paper in hand.

After the brief welcoming ceremonies the METZLER limousines move down FONTANA Drive, formerly Pine Ave., escorted by officer PHIL FELICETTI, on his three wheeler. The motorcade passes Henry's and from behind the counter co-managers JOE T., VIOLA D. and VIRGINIA P. are waving. After a stop at the world famous Como Restaurant for an Italian dinner — served by KATHY A, GARY L. and NAN M. — the motorcade starts out on their last leg of the journey. Is that Rabbi PASSER waving from the steps of St. Joe's Church?

The limousines pull up to the doors of the plush WOOTEN Hotel, DONNA B., NINA G., DIANE Q., AND CLAUDIA W. give a rousing cheer, as the honored guests DENNIS MAIETTA rang for the bell hops TERRY GAFFNEY and JOE MULKEY to carry the luggage to the HOUSTON Suite.

As evening approaches we see the crowds gathering at the Convention Center. Ushering the audience to their seats is DENISE D, MARY JEAN S., and MARY F. Security guards EMERY TWOEY and MARY ANN RANALLI are seen running to the aid of International playboys, PAUL DEL MONTE, and FRANK SERPA who are being torn apart by RUTH G., GAIL B., TINA G., LORI P., and KIM C. Now girls do you think its fair to gang up like that? Over to the side we see DENISE Q. explaining to CINDY S. that Drs. MIKE MARRONE and JOE MAIETTA are NOT that kind of heart specialists.

There seems to be as many celebrities in the audience, as will appear on stage — the "DIMITA QUARTET" is seen sitting down front — they would be performing, but their vocalist JOAN PARADISE has laryngitis and BILL LAURRIE and JANINE TATA and TONY can't get it together without her. Is that — yes it is — MOSE BRAZIL, CALVIN JONES, DAVE STEVENS, DAVE MANSOUR, and PAUL FITCH — the top basketball team in the U. S. A. sitting right in front of KATHY JACKSON, SUE HOLODY, and SHERRY BEAHEN local managers of the GARA Super Markets.

Covering the event is top reporter KAREN CELESTAN of the "NUDO News!" Behind those flashing bulbs are SANDY T. and GINA C. — got some good pictures, girls!

The curtain rises the Master of Ceremonies, JOHN MILLER a famous lawyer, welcomes all of us. The first six acts will be local talent. First on the program is BOB COLAVECCHIA singing his own composition, "I am a happy go Lucky, Cuz Women all Love me." As the first act finish HANNA T. doing a toe dance, while LINDA W. accompanies her on the flute to the tune of WASHCALUS'S Polka written by LOUISA K. The show continues with a light ballet entitled "Flight of the Fairies" by the endowed composer, MICHAEL GUERRUCCI. This is danced by TONY CONTE, RODNEY BUCHANAN, BOB DINUZZINO and ANDY RYAN. The next act which includes several young gentlemen trying their best to do the French Can-can. Participating are SAM ARCHIE, SCOTT DONOVAN, JOE FORTUNA, NIX and VAUGHN SERRIANNE, who seems to be having difficulty with his kick. We notice a commotion in the rear of the auditorium and turning around we see ushers, BRIAN LEONARD, RICH CALPERRI, and headusher TOMPALLANO as they discover a twosome trying to sneak in by way of a rear window. JONI BONARO and JOANNE DIGREGORIO are still doing things the hard way! Our attention is once more placed upon the stage as the city's outstanding acrobats, DARLA COREM, JOE HARRIS, and TERESA RHONEY assisted by KAREN KUSHER who will sing as they swing. Now there will be a short intermission.

As the lights go on, we see JUICY and THOMASINA making their way thru the crowd; he must be doing alright as she is wearing a SEALS Original. CAROL WOOLSON is seen reminiscing old times with the new managers of the concession stand RHONDA SCHAPPEL, ELENA CONTI, LINDA ARIST, AND MARY NEWMAN.

The house lights dim and the spot light focuses a "BARBER" Shop Quartet, JONATHAN BROOKS, CALVIN WILSON, MIKE ROGERS, NICK CONDE, the last of the local talent is YVONNE SLAIMAN a porpoise trainer as she performs with her pet porpoise Freida Estelle. During the performance an emergency arises and Dr. MARIA PRZYSTAL comes to the aid of MARY ALAIMO who has just been struck with a gall bladder attack and was taken to the hospital by GRAY'S ambulance service. Too bad she has to miss the grand finale — Debbie singing the '75 class song.

As our thoughts drift back to 1975, we can still hear ROSE MIGLIAZZO — owner of the Armory Grill — inviting everyone to partake of cookies and milk.
